The “swanky” Lamberti flagship in Cherry Hill is “always dependable” for an “outstanding meal” of “refined” Italian seafood in “unbutton-your-jeans”-size portions, served by an “attentive” staff; the “eye-catching” space with “low lighting” is “great for a date night” or “business lunch to impress a client”, and while the “middle-age” crowd flashing “Rolexes” and “fancy cars” generate some eye-rolls, most regard it as a “classic.”
